WILLIMANTIC'S SIDEWALKS Sonate Rules That They Must Be Uniform in Each District.

(Special to The Bulletin.) (Special to The Bulletin.)
Hartford, June 17.—Willimantic's troubles over her sidewalks have finally been adjusted by the passage by the senate of a measure which has aiready passed the house, and which provides for a uniformity of sidewalks over the entire city. There are to be three or more sidewalk districts and all sidewalks within any one district shall be of the same sort and laid in the same fashion. Private owners will have to lay sidewalks according to the regulations prescribed, but the city will thereafter maintain and repair them.

The Pig Came Back.

The expression "The cat came back" has its equal. A resident of the north part of the town of Franklin recently purchased a pig and placed it in a pen. About three minutes after the pig was noticed going out of sight up the road. The telephone was used to notify the reighbors living on the road to try and stop the pig, but all effort to do was in vain, as it was going at a 2.111-4 clip. After chasing the pig for about three miles, the owner, followed by several willing neighbors, gave up the chase. They also gave up the pig as list, but the following day it came back.
